

Asia's world city at a glance

Overview

With a cosmopolitan community of 7.33 million¹ people who enjoy the best of East and West, Hong Kong is Asia's world city. Famous for its hard assets, such as skyscrapers, world-class infrastructure and superb transportation system, Hong Kong also has many soft appeals in the form of beautiful countryside, interesting islands, a rich cultural and events calendar and exciting sports events.

Hong Kong is ranked as the world's freest economy among 165 economies across the globe in Canada's Fraser Institute's Economic Freedom of the World: 2022 Annual Report.

Hong Kong welcomes talent, professionals and entrepreneurs from all over the world.

One Country, Two Systems

On 1 July 1997 Hong Kong returned to the Motherland and became a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China.

- The National People's Congress authorises the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region to exercise a high degree of autonomy, with executive, legislative and independent judicial powers, including that of final adjudication, in accordance with the provisions of the Basic Law.
- A free and open society where the rule of law is upheld by an independent judiciary.
- A clean, efficient administration and civil service.
- Free flow of information, freedom of expression and association as well as freedom of the press guaranteed.
- The fundamental rights of residents protected by law.
- Separate immigration, customs, police and anti-corruption authorities and jurisdictions.
- Hong Kong continues to actively participate, as a separate member, in relevant international organisations such as the World Trade Organization, the World Customs Organization and the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation using the name "Hong Kong, China".
- As at May 2023, there were 63 Consulates-General, 55 Honorary Consulates and 8 Officially Recognised Bodies in Hong Kong.
- Chinese and English are official languages.

On Top of the World

- Hong Kong people enjoy one of the world's longest life expectancies: In 2022, the expectation of life at birth was 87.2 years for females and 81.3 years for males².

International Business Hub

- Free flow of capital, free trade, free market.
- No foreign exchange controls.
- Simple and low tax system.
- Level playing field – local and international companies compete on an equal footing.
- Prime location at the mouth of the Pearl River Delta (PRD).
- One of the world's most service-oriented economies, with the service sector accounting for more than 90% of GDP.
- Hong Kong has been among the top five global Initial Public Offerings (IPO) fund raising markets in the past decade. In 2022, Hong Kong ranked 4th in the world.
- World's largest offshore Renminbi (RMB) liquidity pool. As at March 2023, RMB deposits and certificates of deposit in Hong Kong totalled RMB950.6 billion.
- Asia's largest hedge fund hub and Asia's second largest private equity fund centre (March 2023).
- One of the world's leading fundraising hub for biotech companies – 86 companies listed under the new listing regime in Hong Kong since its introduction in 2018, 56 of which are biotech companies. These 86 companies account for over 40% of total IPO funds raised in the period, with a total market capitalisation of over US$800 billion (April 2023).
- Hong Kong is an international aviation hub, international maritime centre and regional logistics hub. The Hong Kong International Airport (HKIA) has been the world's leading cargo airport. Under the pandemic impact in 2022, HKIA handled 4.2 million tonnes of air cargo, maintaining its edge in cargo handling as the World's Busiest Cargo Airport in 2022 (Airports Council International), the Airport of the Year 2022 (Air Cargo Week: World Air Cargo Awards 2022) and Asia Pacific's Cargo Airport of the Year 2022 (9th Payload Asia Awards).
- Regional corporate and start-up hub – Hong Kong is home to more than 9,000 overseas and Mainland companies, including over 3,800 regional headquarters and offices, and nearly 4,000 startups operating in major public and private co-work spaces and incubators.

- Regional communications and broadcasting hub with world-class telecommunications infrastructure.
- 76 of the world's 100 top banks operate in Hong Kong (April 2023).
- Intellectual property is strongly protected.
- Hong Kong hosts some of the world's biggest trade fairs, including those for electronics, watches and clocks, gifts, lighting, and jewellery.

Green Hong Kong

- Hong Kong people cherish their green spaces, which serve as the city's "green lungs" as well as calming oases to relax and have fun. About 40% of the land of this territory is officially protected as country parks and special areas for nature conservation, recreation and education purposes.
- Hong Kong is blessed with a huge diversity of flora and fauna – including over 3,300 species of vascular plants, 245 species of butterflies, 130 species of dragonflies, 194 species of freshwater fish, 115 species of amphibians and reptiles, over 570 species of birds, and 55 species of terrestrial mammals. The Chinese white dolphin and Big-headed turtle are just two of the rare species found in Hong Kong.
- Hong Kong is committed to building a greener living environment by improving air quality, promoting cleaner energy sources and reducing waste.

Arts, Culture and Creative Industries

- With a wide selection of arts and cultural events from East and West, Hong Kong is becoming an international cultural metropolis.
- The West Kowloon Cultural District is one of the largest and most ambitious cultural projects in the world. It creates a vibrant new cultural quarter for Hong Kong on 40 hectares of reclaimed land located alongside Victoria Harbour. With a varied mix of theatres, performance spaces, and museums, the District produces and hosts world-class exhibitions, performances, and cultural events, providing 23 hectares of public open space, including a 2-km waterfront promenade.
- The Hong Kong Palace Museum, which has opened to the public since July 2022, is committed to the study and appreciation of Chinese art and culture, while advancing dialogue among world civilisations, contributing to strengthen Hong Kong's role as the East-meets-West Centre for International Cultural Exchange. Embracing new curatorial approaches, the Museum offers a Hong Kong perspective and a global vision, presenting the finest objects from the Palace Museum and other important cultural institutions around the world.

- M+, Asia's first global museum of contemporary visual culture, was opened in November 2021, dedicated to collecting, exhibiting, and interpreting visual art, design and architecture, moving image, and Hong Kong visual culture of the 20th and 21st centuries. The museum reported more than 3.49 million visitations (May 2023) and was named 18th among the world's most visited art museums (December 2022).
- Two performing arts venues in West Kowloon Cultural District, the Xiqu Centre and Freespace, started operations in 2019. Xiqu Centre preserves, promotes and develops the art of Chinese traditional theatre, to nurture the local form of Cantonese opera and to promote other forms of xiqu while Freespace is Hong Kong's new centre for contemporary performance, presenting multi-genre performances and events, produces boundary-pushing collaborations and promoting new ways of seeing and experiencing performance.
- Hong Kong is a creative powerhouse with over 136,000 practitioners engaged in fields ranging from different professions of design and fashion design to printing and publishing, interactive games to animation and comics, advertising to architecture, and music to film and TV production.
- The Hong Kong Museum of Art (HKMoA) has reopened after a major renovation and expansion. The total exhibition area has expanded by about 40% to around 10,000 sq.m. The number of galleries have increased from seven to 12, including a 9-m-high gallery, which can display large artworks. As Hong Kong's custodian of fine art, the HKMoA connects art to people by curating a world of contrasts with the Hong Kong viewpoint, offering fresh experiences and understanding with its four core collections that range from ancient to contemporary, namely Chinese Painting and Calligraphy, Chinese Antiquities, China Trade Art, and Modern and Hong Kong Art.

Heritage Conservation

Hong Kong is proud of its built heritage. The Government's policy is to protect, conserve and revitalise historical and heritage sites and buildings through relevant and sustainable approaches. Hong Kong has 132 declared monuments, including historic buildings, ancient forts, rock carvings and archaeological sites.

Infrastructure

Well-connected Hong Kong invests heavily in infrastructure to boost connectivity globally, with the Mainland and locally. These projects represent the vision for the city's long-term development. They include:

- "One-hour living circle" – a combination of infrastructure and transport projects aims to greatly reduce travel time between Hong Kong, Shenzhen and other PRD cities.
- The Hong Kong Section of the Guangzhou-Shenzhen-Hong Kong Express Rail Link connects Hong Kong to the world's largest, over 40,000 km long national high-speed rail network.
- The Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge links the three major Greater Bay Area cities.
- The Strategic Studies on Railways and Major Roads beyond 2030 has recommended to build three strategic railway projects and three major road projects.
- The governments of Hong Kong and Shenzhen are following up the implementation work of cross-boundary railway projects including the Hong Kong-Shenzhen Western Rail Link (Hung Shui Kiu - Qianhai) and the Northern Link Spur Line through the "Task Force for Hong Kong-Shenzhen Co-operation on Cross-Boundary Railway Infrastructure", jointly developing the "Greater Bay Area on the Rail". Other local railway projects are also progressing in a timely and orderly manner, among which the construction works of the Kwu Tung Station, Tung Chung Line Extension, Oyster Bay Station and Tuen Mun South Extension are expected to commence in 2023. Detailed planning and design of the Northern Link Main Line and Hung Shui Kiu Station are also in progress.
- Capitalising on its unique advantages, Hong Kong is playing an important role in the development of the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area and the Belt and Road Initiative.
- The Heung Yuen Wai Boundary Control Point is the 7th land-based crossing between Hong Kong and Shenzhen, with capacity to handle up to 30,000 passengers and 17,850 vehicles per day.
- The Kai Tak Cruise Terminal serves the world's largest cruise liners.
- The Energizing Kowloon East initiative is transforming the former airport and industrial areas in Kowloon East into another core business district of Hong Kong.
- Airport Authority Hong Kong (AAHK) is pressing ahead with the Three-Runway System project. The Third Runway was officially commissioned for operation with effect from November 25, 2022, signifying an important milestone for the Three-Runway System project. The whole Three-Runway System, expected to be completed in 2024, will significantly increase HKIA's passenger and cargo handling capacities. Coupled with Phase II development of AsiaWorldExpo, SKYCITY developments, as well as other infrastructure projects on the Airport Island and the Hong Kong Port Island of Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge, AAHK is taking steps to transform HKIA into an "Airport City".
- A vibrant, connected, world-class harbourfront is being developed.
